About Kyoto

Kyoto, an old capital for over 1,000 years in Japanese history, has 17 UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Sites in its cityscape dominated by over 2,000 temples and shrines. The city was ranked as number one sightseeing place in the world in 2014 and 2015 by “Travel + Leisure”.

Kyoto is the perfect place to experience Japanese culture firsthand. Try wearing a kimono and walking through the streets of Kyoto or going to a traditional Japanese tea ceremony.

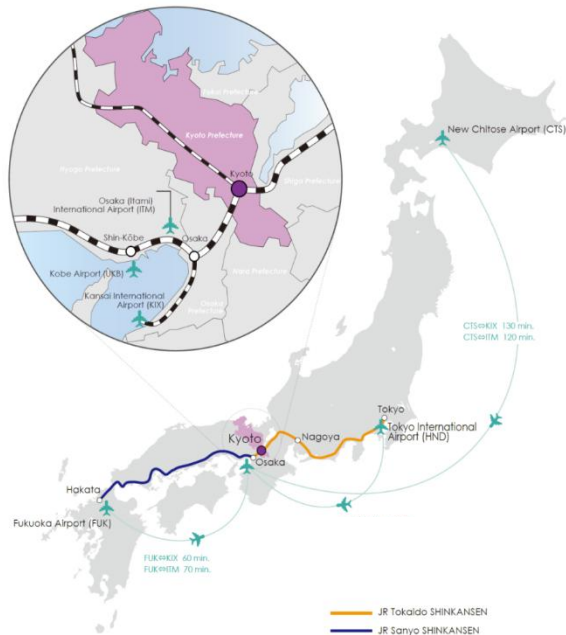

Information about Kyoto will be updated on our official website!

Access to Kyoto

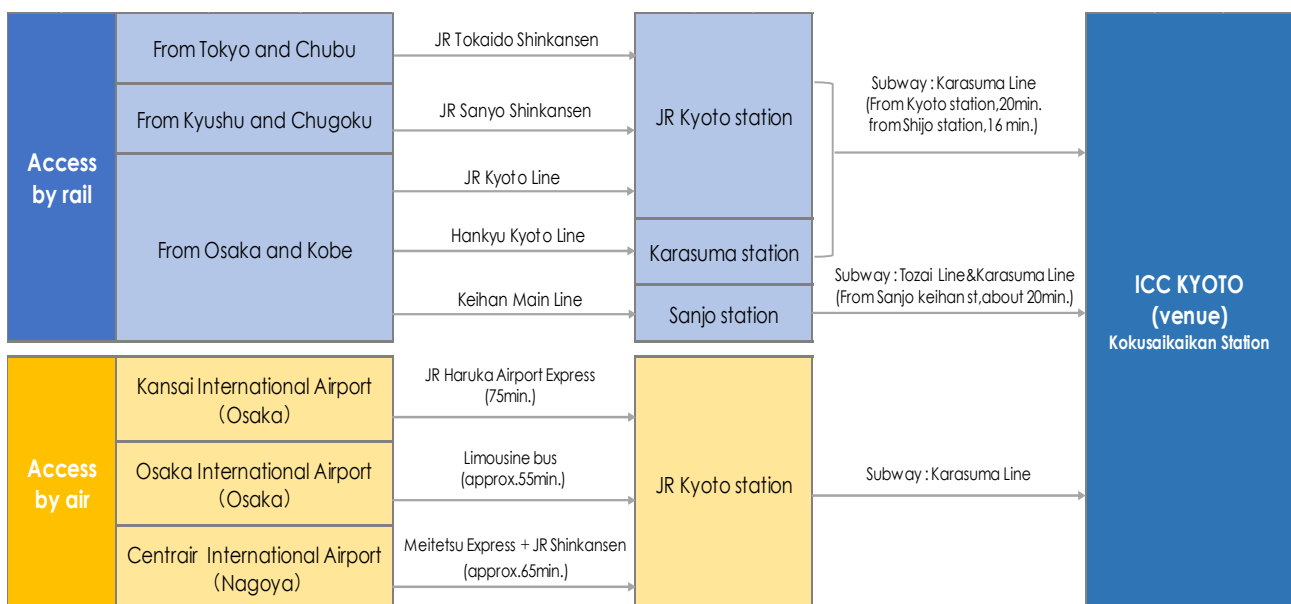

1. Kyoto is in the Kansai region (west area) of Japan. Kansai International Airport is the closest international airport, and it takes 75 minutes to Kyoto by train.

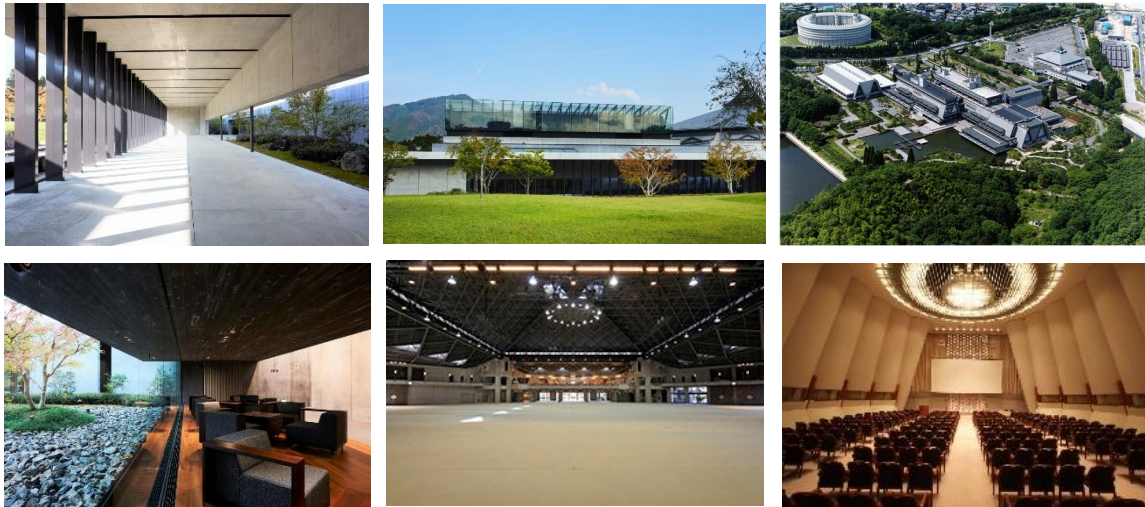

2. Osaka International Airport (Itami Airport) handles domestic flights and is about 1 hour from Kyoto by train. People often fly into this airport by connecting through Tokyo Haneda or Tokyo Narita airport.

3. The bullet train is a smooth 2-hour ride from Tokyo to Kyoto.
