

Call for Sponsors of WCIC2025

11th Nov 2024

WCIC2025 will be the only international conference on investment castings to be held in Japan. We have prepared an attractive plan for everyone involved in investment castings to gather such as an exhibition and the factory tours and so on.

We expect that this will be a very useful opportunity for companies and academics involved in precision casting. We would appreciate your understanding and support of the purpose of this conference and its communication potential.
